The first of these is the reification of the individual. The individual is reified in the sense that the individual is treated as a thing, as an object, rather than as a person, as a subject. This is a problem because it is only as a subject that the individual can be a person. As a subject, the individual is a person who is capable of acting and of being acted upon. As a thing, the individual is a passive object that is acted upon. The second of these is the reification of the organization. The organization is reified in the sense that the organization is treated as a thing, as an object, rather than as a person, as a subject. This is a problem because it is only as a subject that the organization can be a person. As a subject, the organization is a person who is capable of acting and of being acted upon. As a thing, the organization is a passive object that is acted upon. The third of these is the reification of the relationship. The relationship is reified in the sense that the relationship is treated as a thing, as an object, rather than as a person, as a subject. This is a problem because it is only as a subject that the relationship can be a person. As a subject, the relationship is a person who is capable of acting and of being acted upon. As a thing, the relationship is a passive object that is acted upon.

The fourth of these is the reification of the process. The process is reified in the sense that the process is treated as a thing, as an object, rather than as a person, as a subject. This is a problem because it is only as a subject that the process can be a person. As a subject, the process is a person who is capable of acting and of being acted upon. As a thing, the process is a passive object that is acted upon. The fifth of these is the reification of the system. The system is reified in the sense that the system is treated as a thing, as an object, rather than as a person, as a subject. This is a problem because it is only as a subject that the system can be a person. As a subject, the system is a person who is capable of acting and of being acted upon. As a thing, the system is a passive object that is acted upon.

The sixth of these is the reification of the environment. The environment is reified in the sense that the environment is treated as a thing, as an object, rather than as a person, as a subject. This is a problem because it is only as a subject that the environment can be a person. As a subject, the environment is a person who is capable of acting and of being acted upon. As a thing, the environment is a passive object that is acted upon. The seventh of these is the reification of the world. The world is reified in the sense that the world is treated as a thing, as an object, rather than as a person, as a subject. This is a problem because it is only as a subject that the world can be a person. As a subject, the world is a person who is capable of acting and of being acted upon. As a thing, the world is a passive object that is acted upon.

The eighth of these is the reification of the universe. The universe is reified in the sense that the universe is treated as a thing, as an object, rather than as a person, as a subject. This is a problem because it is only as a subject that the universe can be a person. As a subject, the universe is a person who is capable of acting and of being acted upon. As a thing, the universe is a passive object that is acted upon. The ninth of these is the reification of the cosmos. The cosmos is reified in the sense that the cosmos is treated as a thing, as an object, rather than as a person, as a subject. This is a problem because it is only as a subject that the cosmos can be a person. As a subject, the cosmos is a person who is capable of acting and of being acted upon. As a thing, the cosmos is a passive object that is acted upon.

Lady Warriors

The JV Volleyball team had some tough competition this year. The JV team was made up of mostly freshmen and sophomores. They all gave it their best and they all worked very hard this year. The team will come back strong next year.

Spiking It Up!

The varsity volleyball team had another rough season. As the only Senior on the team, captain Michelle Bajmakovich had this to say, "I've experienced different coaches and different teammates throughout these past four years. It's been tough but I have to say this year has been the best."

The Lady Warriors worked hard but still came up short. However, the Lady Warriors are looking forward to working even harder next year.

Freshman Nicole Thomas had this to say, "Being the only Freshman on the team was scary and hard, but I got used to it and had a lot of fun."

Zabrina Harris goes up for a spike.

Down But Never Out!

"The Calumet Warriors Down But Never Out! The Warriors had a rough season, but they say they're not giving up yet. Junior Mark Botts had this to say, "Plain and Simple, we all gave 100+% and that's why we're all winners in our hearts" Sophomore Bryan Lukawski said, "Even though the record wasn't good, the guys that stayed in the program worked hard and are still winners." "Injuries were also a big factor for this year's team. Coach Garrison said, but that's not the only reason for the season record." Senior and Co. Captain Matt Armstrong said, "After the first couple games there were a lot of injuries.

That affected the team and that's when their momentum dropped."

Warrior Netters

The 1994 Calumet Boys' Tennis Team had a very good season this year. The tennis team had new tennis courts this year and enjoyed them very much.

The Team will miss three seniors: Matt Rodriguez who got the Most Valuable Player; and Elton Roberts and Nigel Mayes.

Jesus Sanchez, a junior received the Most Productive award for the most wins. Freshman Jason Wilkerson and sophomore Chris Hodal received the Most Improved award. The team should come back strong next year.

Lady Warriors

The girls' swim team had very little to work with this year. The team had a new addition to the swim team: Norma Esquembra, the foreign exchange student.

Brandi Baliey was a big help for the girls' swim team. She broke the record in the girls 100m free. Brandi also received the Most Valuable Player Award.

Standing: Robert Keehn and Coach Rogers. Sitting: Melissa Reed, Brandi Bailey, Norma Esquembra, and Coach Hudson.

Running Toward Victory

The Cross Country team had a good season this year. The boys team placed 6th in the Lake Ten Conference meet and placed 9th in the sectionals.

Karen Daley was the only member of the girls team. Karen was First Team All Conference and a 1994 Regional Qualifier

— the first ever at Calumet.

At awards night Don Winters received the Most Outstanding Runner, Eric Damjanovic got the Four Year Varsity Award, and Curtis Rex Received the Most Improved. Karen Daley received Most Outstanding Runner.

A New Attitude

This year's Lady Warriors showed other area teams that they are no longer a "fluff" team. The coaches in the Lake 10 Conference picked the Lady Warriors to finish eighth! They were only one game from a Conference Championship.

After a successful season, the ladies entered post season play against Highland, a team that had beaten them earlier in the season.

The Ladies avenged that loss with a last second lay-up by senior Keisha Shaw. The Lady Warriors headed into the sectional championship to play against Lake Central.

The Lady Warriors gained respect in the area when The Times voted them into the area Top 10! This is definitely a team building a new tradition for the Lady Warriors.

J. V. Girls Basketball

The J.V. Girls Basketball team had a tough season this year. The J.V. team was young this year. Next year, the team should be strong. The young players have talent and potential for the years to come. Two jayvee players, Taleia Magee and Nicole Jordan moved up to the varsity during the middle of the season.

Hoopng Through Another Season

The Calumet Boy's Basketball team ended with another great season finishing at 14-8. Senior Marty Abegg had this to say, "We had a great season but the team was very disappointed losing to Highland in the Sectional Championship." Marty also went on to say, "the most exciting game of the season was beating Lake Central on their home court (85-72)." Marty Abegg and Dwight Moore combined for a total of 51 points against L.C. Coach Traicoff said "Calumet's record was one of the best in the area and the team displayed a high proficiency throughout the whole season." Traicoff also gave this as a final testimony to the team's success, "The fact is that the Warriors were in every game!" The Warriors averaged near 72 points a game.

Seahawks

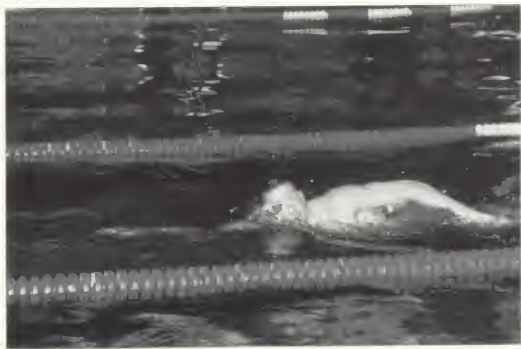

The boys' swim team had a good season this year. They had a record broken by senior Eric Damjanovic in the 100 meter freestyle race. With only one senior leaving, the team will come back stronger with three juniors that will return and many sophomores that will return. They have many strong swimmers on the team.

Calumet High School Cheerleaders do their best all year round to keep the school spirit going. They begin in the summer by raising all their money for the season ahead. Then it's off to camp to prepare for the year. When they return from camp, football season begins. Fighting the mosquitoes, rain, and the cold, they keep on cheering. When football is over they have a month to prepare for basketball.

Cheering all season, through victory and defeat, they finish in March leaving them less than a month before try-outs for the next season. Then after try-outs it's back to the fundraising!

Successful Season for the Netters

The girls' Tennis team had a fair season this year as their record of 4-5 in the conference proves. The doubles team of Elissa Schubert and Chris Toth went to regional this year.

The team loses four girls this year, but they have many returning.

At awards night senior Jessica

Luna was awarded Most Valuable Player, and senior Katie Jackomis was awarded Most Improved. Junior Erin Whiteside received Most Improved and Most Productive. Freshman Velmita Wilson received Best Freshman. The Team will be stronger and have more wins.

Pride, Hustle, and Desire

This year's boys track team ran with pride, hustle, and desire, led by Coach John Steele, who inspired this group of athletes. From the beginning, it was a year to remember.

The boys 4x100

meter relay team chose to be undefeated this year and they were headed to regionals.

They once again broke the school record, which they broke last year. They ran 43-72. The team consisted of Anthony Jordan, Chet Johnson, Faraji Leonard, and Jason Oslawski.

Faraji Leonard had an ambition, which drove him down to State. He was sectional champ in the 100, 200, and 4x100, and got 3rd in both the 100, and 200 in regionals. At State he finished 8th. Congratulations team and congratulations Coach John Steele.

Setting New Records

The girls softball team set a new record this year. Even though not winning many games, the team pulled through with four wins. This was the most wins that the Calumet Softball team has ever won. The girls are looking forward to an even better season next year, because they are only losing one senior. This year's MVP was Senior Pam Kain. Junior Hollie Botts received the outstanding pitcher award; sophomore Beth Hopper received most improved; Junior Harris received highest batting average; and Freshman Nicole Thomas received highest on base percentage. We hope the team will have better luck next year.

Hitting the Links

The golf team usually doesn't have a following to the links, but they do go out and perform as if they did. Sometimes they are the obscured athletes because little is known of them.

At awards night Tim Botts received the Most Valuable Golfer, Marty Beehn received Mental Attitude, LuDovick Garcia received the Most Improved Golfer, and Karl Lugar received the Most Dependable Golfer award. The only freshman on the team received the Outstanding Rookie award.

Baseball Team Fights to the End

The Calumet baseball team did very well this year. The highlight of the season came at sectional time. The Times ruled Calumet out of sectional play. Well, Calumet proved them wrong by beating Munster, and going on to be eventual Sectional Runners-up.

The team loses four seniors this year, but still look to be strong with five boys returning.

The J.V. season was cut short this year due to injuries at both levels. Members of the J.V. moved up to the varsity level.

Girls Track

Academic Team

This year's Academic Super Bowl team had another successful year. The topic for this year's competitions was the environment. The team members compete in six different categories. These categories are social studies, English, fine arts, mathematics, science, and interdisciplinary. At a competition, the team is asked questions. They are given a certain amount of time to discuss each question amongst themselves. Only the team captain is allowed to give an answer. The team receives points for each correct answer.

The team went to two competitions this year. At the practice competition, the social studies team led by captain Adrian Wilkerson took a first place. At the regional competition, the math and science teams, led by captain Jason Wilkerson, took third place along with the interdisciplinary team led by captain Adrian Wilkerson. The social studies team took another first.

Prevention Using Student Help

PUSH is a drug awareness group with 50 members who work all year round stressing the dangers of drugs and alcohol to young children and high school students. This year PUSH raised money by having car washes for the candlelight ceremony held in October. This ceremony was just one of the acts that went on during Red Ribbon Week.

Warriorettes

There were many changes this year for the Warriorettes, beginning with a new coach. Tracy Bruce, who was a Warriorette when she attended Calumet, replaced Val Villarreal. This year the Warriorettes had to stay for the entire game and sit together in a block to cheer. Before each game everyone must try-out by themselves to see if they will be able to perform during halftime.

The Warriorettes raise money by having numerous bake sales, tagging, and selling Warrior tomahawks. The money goes toward pom-poms and new uniforms for the squad.

Even though they had many changes, their performances during football and basketball season were quite enjoyable.

Spanish Club

The past few years the Spanish Club has consisted of only those students who went on the trip to Spain. This year several of the Spanish students decided to expand the club. Now it consists of students taking a Spanish class who signed up and paid a fee. The money went toward the Christmas lunch held for the teachers. Each club member brought in a Hispanic dish and the money paid for drinks, silverware, plates, and napkins for the lunch. The club also sold Avon to pay for field trips to several Hispanic restaurants, the play Sheer Madness, and Great America. The officers of the club were President Diana Velez, Vice-President Angelica Quiroz, Secretaries Jovona Echols and Jesica Luna, and Treasurer Danielle Victor.

This year Mrs. Jones took a group of her students to France and Spain. They went over spring break and were gone for 10 days. In Paris, France they saw the Eiffel Tower, L'arc de triomphe, the cathedral of Notre Dame, Versailles and the Louvre where they saw the Mona Lisa and The Last Supper. In Spain they went to Barcelona and saw where the 1992 Olympics were held. Then they went to Madrid where they saw a bullfight, the Royal Palace, the Plaza Mayor, and the art museum the Prado.

When asked about his trip, Adrian Wilkerson replied, "It was a lot of fun. The best part was we got to see some historic and really breathaking sites like the Eiffel Tower and several beautiful castles. The worst part was most of our time was spent driving around and not seeing the sites. Overall it was an enlightening experience that I will never forget. I learned about new people and sampled their culture."

French Club

La langue d'amour. Mrs. Korotko's French students are very dedicated to their work, but they are also dedicated to having fun.

Every four years Mrs. Korotko goes on a trip to France. She takes one of her French students who would like to go. It isn't cheap though. It costs around $1,500 to go. To help with the cost the students raise money by selling jewelry. Since the French students are going to the trip they will be able to see the Eiffel Tower and other famous landmarks in France.

Interdisciplinary Cooperative Education is a work study program for juniors and seniors. The students involved in the program go to school for three hours in the morning, then they go to work for the rest of the day. They are graded on their performance at their job. This year they participated in a job interview competition. Kim Pusateri took a first place.

Every year as a class project, Mr. Portman has the seniors write themselves a letter. The letter is to be about where they think they will be and what they will be doing in five years. He has them address the letters to themselves and five years after they have graduated, he mails it to them.

Student Council

Every year ten members from each class are elected to represent their fellow classmates. These 40 students work together year round doing things for our school. Some of the activities they participate in annually are cleaning up around the school, food drives, blood drives, pushing education week, and getting new ideas from other schools on how to make our school better. It's hard to pick only the top ten leaders in each class.

This year Calumet started an Honor Council. To be eligible for Honor Council you must have run for Student Council the year before, attend all meetings, volunteer, and participate in Student Council activities. Despite the doubts some students had about Honor Council, it ended up being a huge success. It allows more students to get involved and gets others involved!

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

National Honor Society was very active this year. The 32 member organization participated in several community service projects which included a rake and run, Christmas gift wrapping at Barnes & Noble, serving food at the Salvation Army, and a Head Start reading program. The Honor Society also held the Kiss A Pig contest where Mr. Wadkins, the lucky winner who received the most money from the students throughout the week, had to kiss a pig during halftime at the football game. The members of the Honor Society also tutored students after school with Miss Dodd and Mrs. Kapetonovic.

In order to be inducted into the National Honor Society, you must receive all A's and B's for one semester. You also must have and maintain a 3.0 or better overall GPA. If a student meets these requirements, they will be sent a letter from Mrs. Walters. The student, in return, must write a letter stating their qualities of leadership, service, and character. The student will then be notified if they are to be inducted.

Mrs. Walters stated that she was very happy about the way things went this year. She said that the Head Start reading program and the service at the Salvation Army were both very successful.

Business Professionals of America

Business Professionals of America is a national organization. Indiana is one of the sixteen states that participates in this organization. B.P.A. holds several fundraisers such as selling Valentine's Day balloons, Christmas kits, and candy. The money raised helps pay for the competitions that the club competes in. In January, Business Professionals of America competed in regional contest. The members represented Calumet and several of them won awards. This year they also went to Nashville for a national contest from May 4-7th.

To be in Business Professionals you must have

Warrior News

This year the newspaper staff consisted of only six people. With a limited staff, everyone had to work extra hard to print a newspaper every three weeks. Meeting deadlines took plenty of work and dedication. The staff kept students informed of everything that went on throughout the year including games, local and world news, scholarship opportunities, and student achievements. They also kept the whole school entertained with the Boneheads.

Some of the articles, however, this past year were not completely enjoyed. "How Tolerant Are You", a series of articles written by the staff, received some flack. Included in the series was Katrina Catizone's article, discussing gays and lesbians, which upset some of the students.

Regardless, the staff is free to discuss whatever they chose.

Thanks to the help of Mr. Pribyl the newspaper this year was funded by C.H.S. Students no longer had to pay 25 cents to receive a newspaper.

Chieftain Yearbook Staff 94-95

Who was the class president? Who were the prom king and queen? Who was the most improved football player? Thanks to the Chieftain 94-95 yearbook staff, all your questions are answered. Many changes were made this year because often students complain about the previous yearbooks. They just don't understand how much hard work it takes to put together the yearbook. The yearbook staff has made a great effort to make this year's Chieftain yearbook enjoyable for everyone.

We hope you like it!

Changing

Activities

"Saying no to drugs will take you to a whole new world" was the theme of 1994 Red Ribbon Anti-Drug campaign.

Red Ribbon week was observed October 23 through November 1.

The red ribbon became a symbol of the united effort to reduce the demand for drugs.

Students and teachers wore red bracelets and signed a contract stating that they are drug free.

Right: Mrs. Raby and Miram Gordon show they are fighting against drugs while they wear T-shirts and ribbons.

Burn the Pioneers

On October 7, 1994 Calumet battled Hammond Clark. The Warriors lost 51-14. Even though we lost, Calumet's school spirit made this homecoming more exciting than in the last couple of years.

Senior Football player, Mike Cherry, was voted Homecoming Kind and, Senior Cheerleadering captain, Chris Toth, was elected Homecoming Queen.

To our surprise Tommy Toyota was there to cheer on the Calumet Warrior football team.

What did you think?

Jason Scott replied, "Homecoming was good except when we lost. The funniest part was when one of the flag girls dropped her flag and tried to play it off without one."

What did you think?

Tina Komoscar said, "I had a really good time and especially liked it when they blew up Tommy Toyota."

A CLASS WELL TUNED

This year's chorus class preformed at many concerts. At their last concert, "SAILING AWAY", they preformed many songs, which include, "Sailing Away," "La Isla Bonita," "The Tiger," "Baby Elephant Walk," "The Turtle Dove," "The Rose," "I'll Be There," "Amazing Grace," "Circle Of Life," "Weave," and many other songs to please the audience.

The students received the praises from the students and faculty who were at the concert.

National Education Week

National Educational Week is a week set aside by the National Department of Education to recognize excellence in education. It is always the third week in November at Calumet. The student council plans a different activity for each day of National Education Week.

This year our activities were Open House, Outstanding Student Week, Student Teacher Exchange Day, Outstanding Leader Day, and Teacher Appreciation Day.

The John Darling Show

On November 9, 1994 Calumet opened its first play of the year. The John Darling Show was about how a crew works together to get their rating up from a one to an astonishing ten. They rehearsed every day after school until opening night. Everyone memorized their lines quite well and did an excellent job.

ON BENDED

Turnabout, a night to remember, couples and friends gathered on the dance floor to have the time of their life. Some may not have thought of that night more special than others, but when it came down to it everyone had a good time.

The music boosters didn't have much time to put things together, but when everything was all done it looked beautiful.

Darryl Ramos and Jennifer Hopper were crowned King and Queen, respectively.

The Calumet High School Drama Club became a big hit with their comedic look at the crazy life of disorganized police officers and detectives, in the play Squad Room.

It's all about this mad bomber who is on the loose and plans to blow the police station up. Meanwhile, the police are packed with people with different problems, including a lunatic on the loose.

Everyone one did a great job on this hilarious performance.

Another Successful Blood Drive at CHS

On March 20, 1995 Calumet had it's annual blood drive sponsored by the Student Council. Student Council had hoped to collect 100 pints of blood, but they only collected 92 pints. Jeremy Gregson said he gave blood "because my mother has to get a transfusion and I wanted to give something back." Calumet hosts the blood drive because it is a public service and there is always a short supply in the Calumet region. An anonymous person said giving blood for the first time was painful and unnerving, but it was worth it.

FUN FAIR

This year's Fun Fair seemed to have a better turn out and longer staying time of the patrons with the addition of a few more games than we had last year.

The activities included Bingo, The Cake Walk, Pick A Duck, Pie Throw, Ring Toss, Bozo Buckets, Sucker Tree, Bake Sale, and the never empty Jail, were joined by the newcomers Football Toss, Basketball Throw, and Arcade Games.

Thank you to all who participated and came for the fun and games, hope to see you next year.

Mr. Wadkins

This year's teacher of the year was Mr. Wadkins, a hard worker and a concerned teacher. Mr. Wadkins takes time out to help his students. He is one teacher who makes sure his students get the education they want and deserve.

Mr. Wadkins is also a dedicated coach. He has coached the varsity wrestling team for five years. He was named wrestling coach of the year in the Lake 10 Conference in 1994 and in 1995. Congratulations Mr. Wadkins on a job well done.

START YOUR ENGINES!

The Calumet Booster Club has sponsored a Car Show for the last three years. The fourth annual Car Show was held on May 21, 1995 behind CHS. Funds raised through the Car Show are used for all Calumet athletics; therefore, many coaches and athletes give up part of their day to help out in any area needed.

The Car Show is designed for area car enthusiasts to display their joy. Cars ranged from a 1964 Mustang stock to a 1994 Jeep Wrangler.

The Booster Club looks forward to hosting many more of these shows.

BEFORE I LET YOU GO

This year's prom took place on April 29, 1995. Prom was held at The Croation Center. "BEFORE I LET YOU GO" was the chosen theme. The night was highlighted by the crowning of David Bisbee as King and Heather Sako as Queen. The prom was enjoyed by all.

SENIOR BANQUET

The Seniors' school year finally comes to an end and they celebrate by having a Senior Banquet. Many have arrived at this special occasion to be with the ones who had helped them make it through it all; and now they share one of their last events together.

The Senior Banquet is set up to highlight a senior's school years. Awards are given for perfect attendance, outstanding performance in class, and the ever infamous Gag Awards. There is also an announcement made to introduce the Valedictorian and Salutatorian.

Congratulations and good luck in the future.

SENIOR OLYMPICS

The seniors' hard work finally paid off in a day of fun and games. They began the day with a cookout, then they headed to the games.

Many sports activities were supplied for them, such as: a water balloon toss, passing of the orange, tug of war, a tricycle race, a human wheelbarrow race, and many other activities that let them enjoy the day. The seniors also enjoyed swimming after all the outdoor activities were finished.

GOOD-BYE CLASS OF 1995

As the 1995 Senior Graduates sit in the gymnasium, many thoughts probably cross their minds: the happiness they shared, the good and bad times, how hard they worked to become seniors, and possibly thoughts of friends, teachers, and others may soon miss. It is their time to say good-bye.

As they sit in their caps and gowns, a smile begins to form on their faces and happiness fills the gymnasium as they realize some of the best days of their lives are their school days. Some smiles turn to tears as members of the class of 95 turn their tassels in the symbolic "I'M OUTTA HERE!" moment. Congratulations on a job well done and much luck to all graduates in the Class of '95!
